INFORMATION REGARDING THE EVALUATION OF PRE-LEGAL EDUCATION AND LAW STUDY COMPLETED AND CONTEMPLATED

A student who intends to begin the study of law may submit a written request for a determination of whether he/she has obtained the pre-legal education required prior to the beginning such study. The student must:

- Submit such request on a form provided by the Committee;
- Include the fee specified in the schedule of fees; and
- Include all certified transcripts necessary to make such a determination.

A law student may submit a written request for a determination of whether he/she has obtained the legal education required to qualify to take the First-Year Law Students' Examination or is otherwise exempt. The law student must be registered as a law student pursuant to Rule V, Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California (Rules) and the law student must:

- Submit such request on a form provided by the Committee;
- Include the fee specified in the schedule of fees; and
- Include all certified transcripts necessary to make such a determination.

A law student may submit a written request for an evaluation of studies completed and/or for a determination of additional studies necessary to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. The law student must be registered as a law student pursuant to Rule V, Rules, and must have passed or established exemption from the First-Year Law Students' Examination requirement, and the law student must:

- Submit such request on a form provided by the Committee;
- Include the fee specified in the schedule of fees;
- Include all certified transcripts of all law studies completed to the date of the request; and
- Submit a proposed plan of study, if applicable.

Following receipt and evaluation of a request for any of the above evaluations, the law student will be advised in writing of his/her status.

Following receipt of the completed form, fee, transcripts and other requirements noted above, the Office of Admissions also will provide evaluations to law schools relative to potential or current students who eventually wish to qualify to take the California Bar Examination.

PRE-LEGAL OR LAW STUDY EVALUATION FORM

To submit a request for evaluation of pre-legal education, First-Year Law Students' Examination exemption, law study completed and/or contemplated, a law student or law school official must complete this form, enclose a check made payable to The State Bar of California for $30.00 and include all applicable transcripts in their sealed envelopes. Students must request that certified copies of transcripts from each college/law school attended, whichever is applicable, be sent to them in sealed envelopes. Those seeking to have their proposed study plans reviewed should also complete the back portion of this form. Forms that are incomplete will be returned unprocessed. Requests for evaluations should be returned to:
